

ENDING YOUR SALARYLINK EMPLOYMENT AGE 55 OR OLDER

There are a number of important details for you to be aware of when ending your employment with a Salarylink employer.

If you are transferring to another participating Salarylink employer you may be able to continue your Salarylink benefit. Please see the Transferred to another Salarylink Employer fact sheet for more information.

Insurance cover

When you cease employment with a Salarylink employer:

- your Salarylink Death and Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) insurance cover will be converted to units of Statewide Super Grandfathered Death and TPD insurance (rounded up) in your Hostplus accumulation account. Any additional Death and TPD insurance cover you have through your Hostplus accumulation account will continue; and
- your Salarylink Income Protection (IP) insurance will be converted to units of $500 per month (rounded up) of Statewide Super Grandfathered IP insurance through your Hostplus accumulation account.

If a restriction or limitation applies to your Salarylink insurance cover when you cease employment, the restriction or limitation will also apply to your converted Hostplus insurance cover.

Insurance premiums will apply from the date you ceased employment. For more details please refer to the Statewide Super Legacy Product Guide available at hostplus.com.au/pds.

If you wish to review, change or cancel your insurance cover, simply log in to Member Online. If you cancel your insurance cover within 90 days of your Salarylink insurance being converted to Hostplus insurance cover, your cover will cease from the date you ceased employment and premiums will be refunded back to this date.
