Remuneration

Hostplus sets remuneration at a level designed to attract and retain skilled and capable staff.

These payments include the remuneration for Hostplus' chief executive and executive leadership team as well as fees paid to directors, alternate directors and other board committee members. Payments for some directors are also disclosed under "other" categories below.

Remuneration details are available at hostplus.com.au/remuneration-policy

Breakdown of expenditure

All Hostplus expenditure is considered in the context of members' best financial interests. According to SuperRatings, Hostplus' operating costs are well below the industry median when calculated according to both our number of members and total funds under management[1]. This is mainly due to prudent expense management, while still focussing on providing great outcomes for our members with improved products and services.

In accordance with regulation 2.10(1) of the SIS Regulations, this document contains an itemised list of expenditure in the following categories:

- promotion, marketing or sponsorship expenditure
- political donations
- industrial body payments
- related party payments.

Some payments fall within multiple categories as defined in regulation 2.10(1) of the SIS Regulations. Those payments are therefore disclosed multiple times in the itemised tables.

Promotion, marketing or sponsorship expenditure

This expenditure contributes to the growth of the Fund.

One of the most effective ways to optimise members' financial outcomes is to grow the Fund. As a larger fund, we can leverage our size and scale to access a wider range of investment opportunities. Additionally, with this greater scale comes greater capacity to enhance and re-invest in products, services and capabilities for our members. It has also enabled us to keep our admin fee low, ensuring more money can go towards members' retirement.

This category includes payments made by Hostplus for media, advertising, partnership (sponsorship) agreements and the direct development of promotional or educational material.

Promotion, marketing or sponsorship expenditure (cont'd)

In accordance with regulation 2.10(1)(e) of the SIS Regulations, the following table includes expenditure under the relevant contract(s) across multiple financial years. Accordingly, the amounts in the below itemised table will not match the disclosed amount in the short form summary table above, which, in accordance with regulation 2.10(2)(b) of the SIS Regulations, is limited to the 2025/26 year of income.

Some payments fall within multiple categories. Those payments are therefore disclosed multiple times in the itemised tables.

Industrial body payments

In accordance with regulation 2.10(1)(g) of the SIS Regulations, this table shows each industrial body payment made by Hostplus in the year of income ended 30 June 2026.

Industrial bodies are defined as organisations registered under the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (Cth). Payments made to these bodies are for purposes that include marketing, advocacy and promotion of the Fund.

Payments also include some fees paid to member-representative directors. Hostplus directors choose where their fees are paid.

Some payments also relate to Hostplus leasing offices at industrial body locations. More detail is available at hostplus.com.au/financialstatements.

Some payments fall within multiple categories. Those payments are therefore disclosed multiple times in the itemised tables.

Related party payments

The definition of related parties under Annual Member Meeting disclosure regulations is broader than in accounting standards.

In accordance with regulation 2.10(1)(h) of the SIS Regulations, the below table shows each related party payment made in the year of income ended 30 June 2026.

Related party payments occur when payments are made by Hostplus to Hostplus-related entities and/or their associates, and include:

1. payments made to related entities for business operations,
2. the purchase of services from shareholders of the Hostplus Trustee entity,
3. when Hostplus key management personnel are also key management personnel of an organisation which provides services to Hostplus.

Payments include investment management fees, investment consulting services, operating and occupancy costs, insurance services, financial planning, promotional and marketing services (including partnership agreements) and some directors' fees and board committee fees. Hostplus directors choose where their fees are paid.
