

HELP BOOST YOUR SUPER WITH GOVERNMENT CO-CONTRIBUTIONS.

Make an after-tax contribution to your super and you could receive up to $500 from the government directly into your super account. It's known as the government co-contribution scheme. The maximum super co-contribution you could receive depends on your income.

If you earned less than $62,488 during the 2025-2026 financial year* and you make a personal (after-tax) contribution to your super, you could be eligible to receive a super co-contribution.
